A Church of Love, Encouragement and Acceptance

A Word From Brad...

Luke 14:15-23

(New Living Translation)

¹⁵ Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, "What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet in the Kingdom of God!"

¹⁶ Jesus replied with this story: "A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. ¹⁷ When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come, the banquet is ready.' ¹⁸ But they all began making excuses. One said, 'I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.' ¹⁹ Another said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.' ²⁰ Another said, 'I now have a wife, so I can't come.'

²¹ "The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, 'Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' ²² After the servant had done this, he reported, 'There is still room for more.' ²³ So his master said, 'Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full.

The message from the heart of Jesus is clear; "the Son of Man came to seek and save the lost." Our mission is clear; "go and make disciples."

Your neighbors' souls matter to God, so feel the heart of God and let them matter enough to you to invest in them and invite them to hear the Gospel. You have so many opportunities to invite your lost friends and neighbors to church.

I pray you have the courage to invite them "so that the house will be full."

May and June 2009

Cultural Corner:

I see at least 4 rats each week when I walk at night, some right outside my house. And a bat has chosen to live on our back porch at night. It likes to eat and poop on our clothes hanging out there to dry.

Raise Your Hands:

-Andy is close to making a decision to follow Dad!

-I am finished with language school!

-Dad has provided many opportunities to hang out and share with Hank, Danny, and Def.

-We had a refreshing meeting in June, and I learned many new things and was challenged in many ways.

-I have many opportunities to share the good news at The Center every day!

Bend Your Knees:

-Ask for wisdom as I sit down to study the word with Andy. Ask that his eyes and ears would be open.

-I have a torn ACL in my left knee from my motorcycle accident. I will have a doctor's appointment in Singapore on July 22. Ask for wisdom for the doctors.

-Ask for Dad to provide an opportunity to mentor the three guys He put on my heart, and to give them a desire and excitement about learning more about Him.

-Ask Dad to continue to give me opportunities to share with Hank, Danny, and Def.

Two busy months...

May was a great month! I finished language school! I am definitely not fully fluent, but I can usually communicate well enough to get around town. I was pleased that I can have at least a 20 minute conversation with a friend without using any English! Although I am finished with formal classes, I'll never stop learning the language!

³ We also had a group of summer volunteers come from America. I am the volunteer coordinator for our team, and I've been helping them get adjusted to life here. They are a blast and a huge encouragement. Please lift them up as well, as they are having a huge impact on our city.

⁴ The last week in May, I felt a pop in my left knee. I went to the doctor and he suggested an MRI. The results showed a torn ACL as well as meniscus damage. I will be going to the doctor on July 22, and if surgery is necessary, I would probably have it sometime during the last week of July. The injury is related to my motorcycle accident. Although there have been many tough times, Dad has proved Himself faithful to me here, and I can't imagine being anywhere else on earth!

An amazing story...

My friend Andy that I've been sharing with sent me a text message that said "I wish to follow and act like JC. But it's so hard and difficult. I consider myself to be arrogant and stubborn. Is there any advice to help me change?" I woke up to this at 5:00 am and couldn't go back to sleep because I was so excited about what Dad was doing!

⁶ I was able to meet him a week later, and I went through the Word and shared how to become a follower with him! He had many questions about the wrong things we do, about the Hly Spirt, and how to become a follower of JC. I also taught him how to pry! At the end of our hour-long conversation/study of the Word, I asked him if he was ready to believe, and he said not yet because he feels like he needs to study and learn more, and because his family will disown him if he becomes a follower of JC. Right before the end of the conversation, he described what seemed to be the Hly Spirt tugging at his heart. He took some alone time to work out things with Dad. Please continue to lift him up, and ask that He would repent and turn to JC soon!

A Word from Blake Thomas

Wednesday night my friend Andy came over to spend the night. A week before this, he had sent me a text message that said "I wish to follow and act like JC. But it's so hard and difficult. I consider myself to be arrogant and stubborn. Is there any advice to help me change?" And another one that said "I've read many chapters of the Word and so far I imagine JC as a humble person. He often appeared to serve those who were poor and marginalized!" I had given him a copy of the Word about 3 months ago, and he's been reading it ever since. This is his first time to read it, and it's amazing to see how Dad uses the Word to convict people and teach them! I was out of town when I read these messages. I actually woke up at about 5 am and read them, then I couldn't go back to sleep because I was so excited about what Dad was doing!

So the next week, we went to see Transformers and then he came over to spend the night. We sat around and talked for about 45 minutes, and I was expecting him to bring up what Dad had been teaching him. Well, it was about midnight, and I was tired, and I kept thinking that I was too tired to share with him, and that I would rather wait and do it when I was well rested and felt better prepared. But Dad had other plans! As I was sitting there talking to Andy, I was also talking to Dad. And I felt Dad convicting me that I had to bring up his text messages from the week before, and I had to do it right then. So I asked him about it, and as soon as I did, I started to feel more awake and prepared. Dad came and gave me the energy and the words that I needed! He is so faithful!

As Andy and I talked, we turned to the Word. He told me that he doesn't think he can follow JC because it is impossible to follow his teachings exactly. I was able to explain to him that we can't follow everything that the Word teaches us, and that's why Dad had to send JC. But it is our goal and desire to follow it. He was asking me about changing his behavior, and we turned to the word and read about how when we are in JC, we are a new creation, the old is gone and the new has come! We talked about how Dad comes and changes people when they turn to Him. I was also able to teach him about who the Holy Spirit is, and about His role. I explained the trinity as well. As the night went on, he was asking me about all the wrong things he has done. We turned over to the book of Romans, and went through the Romans Road together. After we talked about the wrong things and asking for forgiveness, he said to me "Do I have to confess each thing I've done wrong right now? That will take forever!" So I told him that Dad sees all wrong things we do as the same, and that we don't have to list them all out, just ask Him to forgive all that we have done, and He will!

As we got to chapter 10 of the book mentioned above, we talked about confessing with your mouth and believing in your heart. At this time, we were able to talk about what it means to become a follower, and how to do it. After explaining to him what it means to be a follower of JC and to believe in Him, and presented the full gospel to him, I asked him if he was ready to believe! He told me that he still had reservations. He feels like he still needs to learn more before he makes a decision. Also, he is afraid because if he becomes a follower, his family will basically disown him. It's a huge decision for him to make. We kept talking though, and he asked me if there were any specific words he had to say to become a follower. I told him that it's not the words you say, but it's what you say to Dad from your heart! I taught him to simply go through the ABC's. Admit that he's a sinner, tell Dad that he Believes that JC is the Son of Dad and he died and was raised, and Confess with his mouth and Choose to follow JC. He then asked me how to pray, and so I taught him a simple prayer that he could lift up to ask for forgiveness and become a follower. He wrote down a lot of what I said, but didn't want to repeat the prayer after me and make the decision.

After we went through all of this for over an hour, he told me that he was ready to go to bed. We were sitting there, and he told me that he wanted to smile and cry at the same time. I asked him what he meant by that, and he said that he felt that a burden had been lifted, but there was something going on in his heart. The way he described it sounded to me like it was the Holy Spirit tugging at his heart! I explained that to him, and that all of his burdens would be lifted if he gave his sin over to Dad. We talked a little more, and then he asked for some alone time. I went upstairs to get his bed ready, and he sat downstairs for about 15 minutes. When he came up, I didn't ask him if he made any decisions, but I could tell that he worked some things out with Dad. It was a great time of sharing and Dad is definitely working in his heart! Please lift Andy up and ask that he would give his life to JC soon!

Throughout the entire conversation, I learned a lot about depending on Dad. Many times when Andy asked me a question, I had to stop and ask Dad for wisdom before I answered. I was amazed at how Dad directed me to certain passages to help explain things! I also realized that Andy has no background of the Word, so I am his teacher. That is so scary to me! I have to make sure I have wisdom and let Dad lead me in this. I have to make sure we turn to the Word in everything as the ultimate authority, and that he learns from the Word and doesn't tend to rely on me. Please ask that I would have wisdom in all of this! Praise Dad for the amazing things He's doing over here! It is my prayer that Dad would come and save Andy and then use that to start a huge movement among the people here. Andy is extremely smart and I am asking that Dad would save him and use him to reach those in his circle of influence. I feel like Dad is about to do something major and amazing, and I continue to ask Him to do something immeasurably more than I can ask for and imagine, and I'd invite you to join me in that prayer!

Just wanted to share that amazing story with you! I'll keep you updated in the coming weeks. Know that I truly value your prayers, and I can't wait to tell you guys how Dad is answering them!

WBC Treasurer's Report—June 2009/2nd Quarter/1st Half

Contributions and Reserve:

- Total June contributions and gifts to Wildewood were $17,859, down 21% from May's giving but the 3rd highest monthly contribution of the year. June donations were 8% under budget and 4% less than the same month last year.
- 2nd Quarter contributions were $56,964, 2% over budget and 19% better than the 2nd quarter of 2008. Largely due to the strong contributions in May, the 2nd quarter was 9% greater than that received in the 1st quarter. That is an unusually strong showing for the 2nd quarter. Giving for the second three months of the year is typically nearly equal to or even less than that received in the first three months.
- 1st Half offerings to Wildewood totaled $110,936, up 3% from last year. The economic events that have occurred in the last 12 months and the combined effect of those incidents on the world economy have caused many charitable organizations and churches to see their funds reduced dramatically. For Wildewood to see a 3% increase during these times indicates solid support for the church.
- Adjusted for the one time 20 month contribution we received in May, the "stimulus plan" gift for June was $1,340. That is down significantly from the $1,825 received in May and only 44% of the monthly goal of $3,000. Because the amount received was less than $2,000 no additional payment of our debt principle was made.
- The unrestricted reserve at the close of business on 30 June was $16,571.04. This is $1,926.27 less than at the end of May and $7,531.59 less than we had at the beginning of the year. On 30 June 2008 our unrestricted reserve, including the "reserve restoration fund" was $35,038.28. Designated funds at the end of the month totaled $9,490.04. Wildewood's total reserve at the end of June was $26,061.08, down $650.06 from the total reserve at the end of May.

Expenditures:

- Total expenditures in June were $19,785, $1,926 less than contributions. 2nd Quarter expenditures were $59,469 and so far this year we have dispersed $118,467. Year to date we are 6% under budget and 5% less than last year in expenditures.
- At the mid-way point of the year it is appropriate to look at our expenditures from the year to date perspective. Except for the two areas listed below all major budget categories were within the established acceptable variance.
- Small Group Bible Study: For the first six months of 2009 Small Group 80% over budget. This is due to my under estimating the cost of two new classes started this year. It is likely that this budget area will be over budget all year. However, to put it in a different perspective the over budget to date is 0.2% of the total budget through June.
- Youth: The youth group is $2,531, (62%), under budget. Some accounts payable for youth activities will help bring this into line. Some programs were less expensive than planned and special contributions have been received for others. However, it is likely that this area will be under budget at years end.
- Overall, expenditures are $6,205 less than the same period last year. Most of that decrease has been in Property and Grounds and Church Administration.

Other:

- Outlook: As evidenced by our mid-year report, Wildewood Baptist Church is surviving. But we are doing it with diminishing financial reserves. If we are not successful at improving our financial position we could very well find ourselves in a very precarious position in early 2010. Wildewood should not be satisfied with survival. If we are to fulfill our mission to God in the Spring Klein community we must improve our financial platform. Please prayerfully consider your support.
- Funds Reporting: For at least the last 3½ years, longer I am told, the reporting of special designated funds received and dispersed has been an issue. While there is no question that these transactions are proper and some of the month end totals are reported on the Balance Sheet, this activity is not fully reported in our monthly financial documents. During the next few months we will be looking at ways to correcting this deficiency in 2010. If you have any comments or suggestions concerning this issue please let Karla or I know.

Respectfully submitted, Richard Anderson, Treasurer, 26 July 2009

It'll be a blast!

New Church Cookbook

You asked for it—you will get it—a new church cookbook. However, we need your help in completing this project.

Please submit three to five recipes for the new cookbook. Where possible please email the recipes to the church office,

karla@wildewoodbc.org

Please give any credit to person(s) or book(s) where the recipe was found. Of course we prefer your good home recipes that you have developed over the years. Additional information will be available but please begin sending the recipes. The deadline is Sunday, October 4. See Susie Schmidt with questions. Proceeds from the book will benefit a ministry at Wildewood and will make a great Christmas gift.
